

Student Worksheet

JUMBLED FABLE

Level: Primary A2.c

Author: Danijela Beljic

Here's an example with a version of one of Aesop's fables. Put the story back into the correct order.

A wolf, however, did really come one day any attention to his cries destroyed the whole flock and then ate the boy

A shepherd-boy, who watched a flock of sheep near a village

The shepherd-boy, now really frightened, shouted he laughed at them because there was no wolf.

He just enjoyed playing a trick on them panic three or four times by crying out, "Wolf! Wolf!"

Moral – You cannot believe a liar, even when he tells the truth made the villagers run out of the village in a

"Help, the wolf is killing the sheep"; but no one paid

The wolf, having no reason to worry, attacked and and when his neighbours came to help him